Dear Group Leaders,

Spring is the time for new endeavors and fresh inspiration—we know you'll find both here at Broadway Dance Center. We truly appreciate your continued support of BDC, and look forward to seeing you on 45th Street soon!

New York City is the thriving center of the dance world, and with our studios right in the heart of the Broadway theater district, BDC is the definitive destination for NYC dance. From drop-in classes and private lessons to special workshops and intensive programs, we are proud to offer your dancers a comprehensive dance education. Our outstanding Group Services Department will custom tailor your BDC experience to fit your group's needs to maximize the training your students will receive from our elite faculty.

Spring has also brought exciting changes to BDC. Dayna Camp, Group Services Director since 2005, is eager to welcome her new baby girl, Sophia, to her beautiful family. As Dayna makes the transition to full-time mom, we are pleased to introduce Ana De Villegas, who will be stepping into the position of Group Services Director. Dayna would like to thank each and every one of you for choosing BDC and entrusting your dancers' education to her. She is excited to start this new chapter of her life and knows that Ana will do a wonderful job for your group.

Ana De Villegas

Born in Bolivia, Ana trained at the Ballet Academy of Northern Virginia, where she went on to perform, choreograph, and teach extensively. She continued her training throughout college in various dance disciplines. Since then, Ana has taught salsa lessons, become a certified Pilates instructor, and most recently served as a Washington Redskins Cheerleader for the 2009-2010 football season. Ana's other interests led her to study philosophy and international legal systems in London, England, and her Criminal Justice degree was instrumental as she pursued a law degree and worked as a paralegal. Ana is excited to have made the move to New York City as the new director of BDC's Group Services department. She is eager to welcome all groups and to offer each student a unique and memorable experience.

At BDC, our goal is to inspire the world to dance, but it is you and your students who inspire us each day.
